Discussion Questions

Pride Assumes a Seat (Luke 14:7–11)

Are there areas where you have found yourself thinking, "Of course God will bless me because I..."? How does the world's view of status and worth conflict with Jesus' kingdom values?

Grace Pursues the Helpless (Luke 14:12–14)

Why is it so difficult for us to accept that God's grace is entirely unearned? How do we live fully dependent on grace? How might God be calling you to extend grace to people who can offer you nothing in return?

Excuses Expose the Heart (Luke 14:15–20)

What good things in your life could easily become excuses that keep you from prioritizing God's kingdom? How can we guard against these idols? Are there areas where you might be presuming on God's grace instead of actively responding to His invitation?

The Unlikely Fill the Banquet (Luke 14:21–24)

How does it challenge your view of God's grace to see who He fills His banquet with? What does it say about God's glory that He delights to save the poor, broken, and helpless? Do you truly see yourself as one who brings nothing to the table but needs everything from Christ? Why is that a hard place to stay?

Clothed in Righteousness (Matthew 22:11-14)

What does it mean to be "clothed in Christ's righteousness"? Why is it not enough to simply respond outwardly to the invitation without receiving the garment only God provides? How can you daily remind yourself that your acceptance at God's table is not based on your works, but on Christ's perfect work on your behalf?

Family Discussion

Luke 14:17 says, "Come, for everything is now ready." What does it mean that everything is ready? Who made it ready?

What were some of the excuses people made? What kind of excuses do people sometimes make today for not following Jesus?

Why do you think the King invited people to his banquet who couldn't pay Him back or didn't feel important?

What kind of clothes does God give us for His banquet? Can we make those clothes ourselves?

What will this invitation remind you of when you see it? Who do you know that needs to hear about this invitation too?
