Discussion Questions

Egypt began as a place of fruitfulness and refuge but it became a place of oppression under Pharaoh. What does this teach us about how God's good gifts can become idols or sources of bondage if we stop looking to Him?

Read Exodus 3:1–12. How does the burning bush show God's holiness and mercy existing together? In Exodus 15:22–27, how do you see a retelling and foreshadowing of the gospel story?

Read Exodus 19:16–21 and 20:18–21. Why do you think the people were afraid to draw near to God's presence, even though He invited them? How does Jesus make it possible for us to approach God's presence without fear?

Read Exodus 32:30–32. Moses offers his life for the people, how does this foreshadow Christ's greater work of intercession? Moses had once doubted God's call five times; now he intercedes five times. What does this reversal teach us about grace's power to redeem our failures?

Read 34:6-7. What does this passage teach us about who God is at His core? Which part of this description do you need to rest in this week? How does Jesus fulfill what Moses only began? In what ways is Jesus "like Moses," and in what ways is He greater?
