Discussion Questions

Read Mark 1:29–34. What does Jesus' movement from the synagogue into Simon's home teach us about the reach of His authority?

Simon's mother-in-law is healed and immediately begins to serve. Why is the order important?

The whole city gathered at the door looking for Jesus. What were they hoping He would do for them? What are some good and understandable reasons people seek Jesus today, and how can those desires become distorted if we want His gifts more than we want Him?

Read Mark 1:35–37. Jesus withdrew to pray, what does His example teach us about the relationship between prayer, ministry, responsibilities, and urgent needs?

Peter tells Jesus, "Everyone is looking for you." What voices or pressures are most likely to control your decisions? How can prayer help us place those expectations beneath the will of the Father?

Read Mark 1:38-39. Jesus could have remained in Capernaum healing people, but He continued preaching throughout Galilee. Why were the healings not the full purpose of His mission? How do they point forward to His death, resurrection, and final victory over sin, sickness, Satan, and death?

Breaking Bread Groups are where we get together as families and individuals to discuss the things that God is teaching us through His Word. There is more information about our current groups on the back table.

Announcements

Fifth Friday Family Fun Night – July 31st at 6pm

Bring some snacks and your favorite board game. We'll take a little bit of time to load up backpacks for the Back to School Bash, but otherwise this will just be a time to hang out and get to know each other better.

Back to School Bash - Saturday, August 8th - 9am-Noon

Mark your calendars! During the event, we will also be holding Flag Football evaluations, but the morning will include much more than that. We'll have food, a foam party, and a backpack giveaway as we help families get ready for the new school year.

Backpack and School Supply Giveaway - We would love your help making this a blessing to our community. We are collecting school supplies so that we can fill backpacks to give away during the Back to School Bash. Items like pencils, crayons, notebooks, folders, glue sticks, paper, and other basic classroom supplies would all be appreciated.

Visit RedeemerRomeo.com - Find resources written with our members and visitors in mind, including weekly encouragement and newsletters, Theology Simplified articles, Bible study tools, and sermon resources. Our hope is that the website becomes a growing library of discipleship and gospel-centered resources for our church family and anyone who wants to learn more about following Jesus.

Food Pantry Needs - Our cupboards are beginning to look a little bare. If you are able, please remember to grab a few extra staples for the food pantry. Thank you!
